

Due to a health issue Sue has everything we cook is Gluten free. This is generally not a problem and we certainly don't miss out. But there are some things which can be a bit challenging. Sue has perfected her Gluten free Yorkshire pudding batter and they are better than ordinary Flour based ones, in our opinion. But Gluten free pastry recipes can be a bit hit and miss to say the least. This version looks light and crispy without the pallid appearance of the shop bought pre-rolled versions.

We'll let you know when we eat the pasties!

The filling was actually the remaining filling from the Zambian Polenta Pie
